ORDER SCHEDULING
SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

09 Civ. 7350 (SHS) (GWG)

A settlement conference in this matter is scheduled for February 25, 2010, at 2:30 p.m. in Courtroom 17-A, United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York. The parties should be sure to arrive a few minutes early so that the conference may begin promptly.

The Court's "Standing Order Applicable to Settlement Conferences Before Judge Gorenstein" is enclosed and is incorporated herein by reference. Please read the Standing Order carefully.

The parties are directed to pay particular attention to paragraph 6 of the Standing Order, which sets forth who must appear at the conference on behalf of a corporate or union client. As noted therein, corporations or unions (or any other party that is not a natural person) must send to the conference the person ultimately responsible for giving settlement authority -- not someone who has received authority from another person. In addition, if an insurer has any role in approving a settlement, a representative of the insurer with responsibility for authorizing settlement must also attend the conference. Attorneys are responsible for ensuring that the appropriate individuals appear.

The parties should also note that paragraph 3 of the Standing Order requires certain written submissions, which must be received by the Court and all other parties no later than 12:00 noon three business days before the conference: that is, February 22, 2010. These submissions may not be sent to the Court by means of the ECF system. Also, attorneys must ensure that their clients have read these submissions prior to the conference.

Under paragraph 8 of the Standing Order, counsel are required to seek a change in the date of the conference if (1) an adjournment would permit a party to obtain information that would make the conference more fruitful or (2) a client who would otherwise participate by telephone would be available to attend the conference were it held on another date. The parties should follow the instructions in paragraph 8 to seek any change in date.

Each counsel must promptly confirm that all other attorneys on the case have received a copy of this Order along with the attached Standing Order. If a party is aware of any person or entity not listed on the ECF system who should be present at the conference, that party should contact Deputy Clerk Sylvia Gonzalez-Feliciano immediately at (212) 805-4260.

If the plaintiff has not already made a settlement demand, such a demand shall be communicated to the opposing party no later than 10 business days prior to the conference. If it has not already done so, the opposing party shall respond to any demand with a counteroffer no later than 5 business days thereafter.

SO ORDERED.

Standing Order Applicable to Settlement Conferences Before Judge Gorenstein

1. Settlement conferences form no part of the record. All communications made as part of the conference process are strictly confidential and may not be used for any purpose.
2. Judge Gorenstein will function as a mediator, attempting to help the parties reach agreement on terms of settlement. This process requires that counsel and their clients be both prepared for the conference and candid with the Court. The Court expects to hold only one settlement conference.
3. No later than 12:00 noon three business days before the conference, the Court and opposing counsel must be in receipt of a letter from counsel for each party marked prominently “Confidential Material for Use Only at Settlement Conference,” setting forth succinctly (normally in 7 pages or less) the following: (1) A discussion of the relevant facts and applicable law, with an emphasis on the issues most pertinent to settlement -- including a discussion of liability and, if appropriate, of damages in the event liability were established. If injunctive relief is sought in addition to or instead of money damages, the parties should set forth their positions as to the provision of such relief. (2) The history of settlement negotiations, if any, including any prior offers or demands. (It is normally unhelpful for a party to state in this letter its final settlement position.) This letter must be received by all parties and the Court no later than 12:00 noon three business days before the settlement conference. Counsel must immediately provide a copy of the opposing party’s letter to their client and/or insurer and confirm that the client/insurer has read the letter prior to the conference. These letters may be used solely for the purpose of this settlement conference and not for any other purpose, either in this litigation or elsewhere.

On or before the due date of this submission, the parties must also submit to the Court and serve on the parties the “Acknowledgment Form” that appears following this Standing Order. Both of the required submissions may be sent to the Court via facsimile at (212) 805-4268 provided that the facsimile transmission (including any exhibits) does not exceed 15 pages. If sent by fax, do not also send a hard copy.

4. At the settlement conference, counsel for each side will be expected to make a succinct presentation (usually 10-20 minutes) in the presence of each other and the parties summarizing the issues they believe are important for the client and/or insurer of the other side to consider for purposes of formulating a settlement position. The presentation should be geared to persuading the opposing party, not the Court. Thus, it is usually (1) unnecessary to recount in full the background of the dispute and (2) helpful to discuss issues raised in the opposing party’s confidential settlement letter. The Court prefers that counsel not use “PowerPoint” or other “slideware” products. Following the presentations, the Court will allow counsel to respond to points made by opposing counsel and, if appropriate, to pose constructive questions. Clients may speak too if that is desired.
5. Following the presentations, the Court will meet separately with each side in private. In these meetings, the parties and their counsel will be expected to reveal, if asked, their final position on settlement, the amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses incurred to date, and an estimate of the remaining costs (including attorney’s fees) of litigating the case to judgment, including any appeal.

6. The presence in person of each party (that is, the client), in addition to the party's lawyer, is essential to the settlement process. Also, if an insurance company has any role in approving a settlement, the decisionmaking representative of the carrier must attend in addition to the insured. Because it is important that the decisionmakers with respect to settlement hear their adversaries' presentations and be available to answer questions from the Court, the person who attends must be the person with responsibility for determining the amount of any ultimate settlement and who has not had limitations placed by another person with respect to his or her authority to settle. That is, corporate parties, labor unions and insurance companies (or any other party that is not a natural person) must send to the conference the person ultimately responsible for giving settlement authority, not someone who has received authority from someone else. If the acknowledgment form (or other information) reveals to a party that the individuals scheduled to attend the conference on behalf of that party's adversary do not comply with this requirement, that party shall immediately confer with the adverse party and inform the Court by letter promptly if no resolution is reached.

Note: A client or insurer's attendance by telephone is permitted if the party lives and works more than 100 miles from the Courthouse and it would be a great hardship for the party to attend a conference held on any date. Where a party attends by telephone, the party must be on the telephone for the entire conference, which is potentially up to a three-hour period. (In the event more than two parties indicate their intent to appear by telephone, the technical limitations of the telephone system may prevent some parties from so attending.)

If needed by a client, each party must supply its own simultaneous interpreter (who need not have any special certification). In cases where the Comptroller of the City of New York has authority over settlement, the Assistant Corporation Counsel must make arrangements in advance of the conference for a representative of the Comptroller either to attend the conference or to be available by telephone.

7. If a party fails to attend the settlement conference with all of the required persons – that is, the attorney, plus the client (which, for a corporate or union party, means a decision-making employee of the client as described in paragraph 6, above), plus a decision-making representative from the insurance carrier (if applicable) – that party may be required to reimburse all of the other parties for their time and travel expenses, and may face other sanctions.
8. A party may make an application to adjourn or advance the date of the settlement conference without providing cause as long as the application for a change in date is made at least two weeks prior to the scheduled conference date. Otherwise, counsel should set forth the reasons for seeking the change in date and must make the application as soon as counsel becomes aware of the need or potential need for the change. In addition, the parties are required to seek a change in date if (1) an adjournment would permit necessary discovery or exchange of information that would make the conference more fruitful, or (2) a client who would otherwise be permitted to participate by telephone would be available to attend the conference were it held on another date. To seek a change in date, the party should first contact the Deputy Clerk, Sylvia Gonzalez-Feliciano, at (212) 805-4260 to determine an alternative available date and time. Counsel should thereupon immediately consult with all other counsel as to their and their clients' and insurers' availability on such date. The party must then send a letter to the Court (which may be sent by facsimile at (212) 805-4268) forthwith requesting the new date and time and indicating that it is agreed to by all parties. The conference date is not changed unless counsel are thereafter informed that the written application has been granted.
9. The scheduling of a settlement conference has no effect on any deadlines or other pending obligations in the case.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

Complete this form (please print or type) or its equivalent, sign it, and send it (for receipt no later than 12:00 noon three business days prior to the conference) (1) to all other attorneys who will be attending the conference and (2) to Judge Gorenstein (if sent by fax, the fax number is (212) 805-4268). Please read the certifications below carefully as your signature indicates your compliance with them.

Name of Case:                Shaw v. City of New York
Docket Number:        09 Civ. 7350 (SHS) (GWG)

I acknowledge that my client and I must attend a settlement conference on February 25, 2010, at 2:30 p.m. in Courtroom 17-A, United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY.

1. I am attorney for _____
[state name of party/also state whether party is plaintiff or defendant].

(For corporate or other non-individual clients): The name of the representative of my client who will attend the conference is: _____. The title of this representative is: _____.

a.        _____ The above-named individual will attend in person.

b.        _____ The above-named individual will attend by telephone because I certify that (1) such individual lives and works more than 100 miles from New York City (or, if my client is not an individual, the client's decision-maker lives and works more than 100 miles from New York City), and (2) it would be a great hardship for this individual to attend a settlement conference on this or any other date. This individual understands that he or she must participate by telephone without interruption for the duration of the conference.

3. I certify that the person attending the conference (in person or by telephone) is the person with ultimate responsibility for determining the settlement amount: that is, the person responsible for giving settlement authority, not someone who has received authority from another person. In addition, if there is an insurance carrier with authority over settlement, a representative from such carrier with complete responsibility over settlement will be present in person or by telephone.

4. I certify that I will promptly supply a copy of opposing counsel's settlement letter to all persons attending the conference (by telephone or in person), and I will confirm prior to the conference that each person has read opposing counsel's letter.

5. I certify that I have read both the Court's Order scheduling this conference as well as the "Standing Order Applicable to Settlement Conferences Before Judge Gorenstein."
